"DARE-DEVIL" WILSON IS HURT

Serious Accident to One of Headliners Only Thing to Mar Night's Performance.

That the Virginia State Fair of 1922 has the "call" on all former expositions held in Richmond, is indicated by the attendance. With the exception of Richmond day, the number of paid admissions yesterday surpassed that of any day of the week and was away ahead of that for the same day of 1921.

Thousands passed through the turnstiles early in the morning. A majority of them were out-of-town visitors. The day was a fine one, and the restaurants and "hot dog" stands reaped the benefit. Later, the Richmond contingent arrived, and the fair was crowded. The last night it was found that the record had been smashed. And everybody appeared to enjoy the exhibits and the free shows.

The live stock parade will be the feature today. It will start at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and all of the animals on the grounds will pass in review of the grand stand.
The prize winners will be displayed. The free shows and the daring aviators and high divers will be other feature attractions.

The second thrill came when the bushy-haired artist of the Mable Cody Fishing Circus, who had been airplane while it was west of the grand stand, floated over the stand and landed against the grand stand. The crowd, who were battered to pieces of safety, while the parachute artist suffered only a few bruises in taking away plumage from the grand stand.

All the free attractions were carried out according to program yesterday, and the crowd from the grand stand was free with applause.
Yesterday's visitors to the fair gave considerable of their time to the various exhibits. A few found time to take in the shows along the Midway, and all came away with praises for the fair as a whole.

The two men against whom indictments were returned today by the Federal grand jury, accusing them specifically with stealing two autos, are former Major Ralph S. T. Evans, of Baltimore, and former Captain Paul P. Klinger, of Atlanta, Ga.

The case is said to involve twenty-five or thirty other officers, some of them still in the service.

HIGH DIVER IS HURT IN STATE FAIR ACT

"Dare-Devil" Wilson Seriously Injured in Sensational Stunt.

MAY OPERATE TODAY

Several Physicians Called in Consultation at Memorial Hospital.

The first serious accident that has happened at the Virginia State Fair, since it opened last Monday, was recorded last night, when "Dare-Devil" Wilson, one of the headliners at the fair, was the only thing that marred yesterday's performance.
He was injured while making a stunt in which he was to dive from a high diver into the water.

Wilson is now at Memorial Hospital and an operation is being performed this morning for the purpose of relieving the pressure on the spinal cord. An X-ray will be taken to ascertain if such an operation would be advisable. Dr. C. C. Coleman, head and nerve surgeon; Dr.
H. Page Mauck, orthopedic surgeon; and Dr. A. Murat Willis, chief of the surgical staff of Memorial Hospital, will perform the operation, if it is necessary.

Atmosphere of Anxiety Apparent in London Over Situation.

NEWS UNSATISFACTORY

Report of British Plan to Quit Chanak Emphatically Denied.

[By Associated Press.]
LONDON, Oct. 5.—The British Cabinet met hurriedly at 11 o'clock tonight and went into anxious discussion over the Near East situation.
It is understood that unsatisfactory news was received from Constantinople, but the nature of the news was not disclosed. The Greek delegation was not for the present closed.
At the afternoon meeting of the Cabinet, the matter of the irreconcilable attitude of the Kemalists on certain material points was under consideration. The Greek delegation were to join the Mudania conference today, and it may, therefore, be supposed that the government's latest attitude was given to them in their attitude today's session.

Greeks Delay Negotiations.
The Greek delegates, it is declared, have no power to sign an agreement without referring it to Athens.
It is possible that delays on this account will be entailed.
Towards the close of the afternoon's Cabinet council, the Foreign Office received a summary of the Anglo-Greek conference. The reply to the allied invitation to a peace conference. It should be explained that it was not the tenor of this reply understandingly that the Greek delegation did not take the reply under advice, leaving this matter for tomorrow's meeting. The reply is, in fact, a great extent what might have been expected.

Would Meet at Smyrna.
It thinks the allied powers for the return of Eastern Thrace and the Aegean Sea. It suggests, but does not insist, that the conference be held at Smyrna, instead of Venice. The most important part of the note is its insistence that Russia and the British Sea state should be invited to the peace conference. Apart from this demand, which is certain to cause difficulties among the allies, the note is couched in a tone of conciliation.
The view expressed in official quarters is that Smyrna is too distant for the conveniences necessary for an international conference and therefore there will be counter proposals to the Anglo suggestion.
It is denied officially that there is any consideration of the reports that an arrangement has been made for British withdrawal from the Chanak area. At this point the government's attitude is unchanged.

Kemalists Reported to Have Occupied by Turkish Cavalry.
Outside the neutral zone as established by the declaration of the armistice in May, 1921. Kandra lies about sixty-five miles from Constantinople.

According to the latest reports, the Greek general, Nider, has gone to Troy and is in command of the troops and it is reported that the Greek troops have left Saloniki for Adrianople.

In purpose of the late Cabinet meeting was to consider a dispatch from General Harrington, which was very incomplete owing to a breakdown in the radio. So far as it satisfactory condition of affairs, the government has asked General Harrington to repeat the text and to remain in Constantinople until further instructions.

Another report was current, but accepted only a partial explanation. That the stoppage of the conference sessions was due to the necessity of the Greek delegates referring all matters for decision to their government at Athens.

ACTING KLAN HEAD
ACCUSED OF USING
MAILS TO DEFAUD
E. Y. Clarke Indicted by U. S.
Grand Jury at Atlanta.

[By Associated Press.]
ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 5.—E. Y. Clarke, imperial wizard pro tem of the Ku Klux Klan, was indicted by the United States grand jury here today on charges of "using the mails to effect scheme to defraud." The charges against Mr. Clarke, who yesterday announced his resignation as pro tem head of the confederation, are that he had used the Klan to take effect November 10, are based, according to the true bill rendered by the grand jury, on alleged use of the mails in collecting money from certain members, subordinate officers and employees of the Ku Klux Klan on the pretense that such money would be used to pay premiums to society companies furnishing bonds for these Klansmen.

The indictment alleged that the sums collected were in excess of the amount required to pay such premiums, and that this excess was converted to the personal use and benefit of Mr. Clarke.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 5.—

dicted tonight by the Cabell County

Greece Sends Large Troop Re-En-

[By Universal Service.]
LONDON, Oct. 6.—(A. M.)—It was reported at midnight from Constantinople that the Greek troops were leaving Saloniki with re-enforcements for the contingents now at Adrianople.

According to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Constantinople, General Harrington returned from Mudania as the Greek delegates had interrupted the conference on account of the necessity of asking instructions from the new government at Athens.

Brigadier-General Harrington, commander of the allied forces and head of the allied delegation, returned this afternoon. When it will be resumed is a matter of conjecture.

Various explanations for the separation of the delegates are given in the rumors which quickly developed. One of the most generally credited relates to the evacuation of Constantinople. According to unofficial information, Ismet Pasha, the Nationalist representative, suddenly raised the question at the afternoon session of the evacuation of the conference. General Harrington replied that that would come after the conclusion of the peace treaty.

tion. That the stoppage of the con-

QUEBEC, Oct. 5.—A death toll of more than thirty persons is certain, it is reported tonight, in the brush and forest fires, which are raging over two widely separated areas in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec.
Although the fires, which razed six mining towns in the Humberly district in Northeastern Ontario, are reported checked, timber and in the St. Maurice Valley, in Quebec, is ablaze tonight, fires spreading south and southeast toward this city, and the villages lying north of Montreal and what is declared as Canada's worst conflagration.

Two negro youths, who gave their names as Preston Byrd, 14, and Thomas Brown, 13, are held without bail at Second Police Station, the one charged with a criminal attack on an 8-year-old white girl in the vicinity of Howard's Lane, off the Hermitage Road, last night, and the other with complicity in the crime.

The negroes were arrested by Officer Anthony, of headquarters, and Policeman Dilling, of Second Station, near the scene of the crime, twenty-minutes after the attack is alleged to have occurred. They were immediately rushed to the station-house, where Byrd is alleged to have confessed to the crime when confronted by the girl, who detectives said, identified him as the negro who attacked her and carried her into a bushy place near the crime. Byrd is held as an accessory to the crime.
By special order from Justice J.
Hoge, chief of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, the negroes were held in a cell at the station for safe keeping.

Prompt response was made by police from First Station and those on duty at the State Fair Grounds, who commandeered automobiles and were on the scene a few minutes after the call was received at police headquarters. The girl, according to police, was playing in an open field near the highway and in view of her home when the negroes approached her and carried her into a
held as an accessory to the crime.
